

THE LADY & THE SUN

You got a whole lotta time and a little bit of money.
Wanna find someplace where the days are sunny.
Got to get away. You got to do it today.
Yes, you do.

No need for excuses, don't need no alibis.
Got to make your way through those friendly skies.
It's a holiday. Nothin' to do, or say.

And fall in love with the lady who's in love with the sun.
She'll keep you on the line, you know, she'll keep you on the run.
Fall in love with the lady who's in love with the sun.
You just might get burned, though, you're not sure, by which one.

You wanna see ladies brown and beaches white.
Wanna get a little crazy, fall in love overnight.
Let your feelings show. No one will know.
It's alright.

And fall in love with the lady who's in love with the sun.
She'll keep you on the line, you know, she'll keep you on the run.
Fall in love with the lady who's in love with the sun.
You just might get burned, though, you're not sure, by which one.

Words & Music by Bobby Brennan ©2006 all rights reserved