

44 THINGS THAT CAN KILL YOU

By Bobby Brennan

- #1 A failed parachute.
 - Hardening of the arteries, resulting in a heart attack.
 - E-bola virus
 - The big C , cancer
 - A fatigued bungee cord.
 - An auto accident.
- #7 A jealous husband.
 - An airline crash....I'm not afraid of flying, it's the plummeting to earth from thirty thousand feet in a giant fire ball that scares me.
 - Being struck by lightning.
- #11 Aids.
 - Falling asleep while smoking, driving, or lying in a hot bath, in fact sleeping during most activities, other than reading is bad for you!!!
 - A gang member worried about witnesses during a convenience store robbery.
 - A crazed fan or a deranged stalker.
 - A malfunctioning elevator.
 - Drowning.....they say its possible to drown in a teaspoon of water.
 - Poison gas; yes, a saran gas attack can fuck-up your whole day.
 - Heroin overdose.
 - A nuclear war.....I hope they don't split no atoms around here!!
 - Erupting volcanoes.....especially the lava.
 - Kidney failure.
 - Earthquakes exceeding 7.0 on the Richter scale. Followed by a tsunami.
 - A lethal injection.
 - Serial killers...law enforcement claims there are at least fifty of them operating in the united states today....
 - Being eaten by a great white shark...rare? But it happens.
 - Carelessly falling into an uncovered man hole.
 - An avalanche.....
 - Being bitten by a brown recluse spider.
 - Freezing to death...
 - Stepping on an undiscovered land-mine.
- #32 Starvation
 - Carbon Monoxide Poisoning...
 - A tornado...
 - Auto erotic asphyxiation.
 - Emollition.
 - Spontaneous Combustion.
- #38 Kidney failure.
 - Tobacco.
 - Falling or being pushed onto the third rail at a subway station.
- #41 A minor surgical procedure where, somehow,
 - you're the one in a million, where something goes terribly wrong!
 - Coming between a North American Grizzly bear and her cub.
 - An unexpected snowstorm while climbing Mount Everest.
